14.00 Hrs.  Visit The Louis House (บ้านหลุยส์ ที เลียวโนเวนส์).
The Louis House is the former residence of Louis T. Leonowens (1856-1919), son of Anna Leonowens. She was the British tutor to the children of King Rama IV. The house has become one of the must-see tourist spots of Lampang, and tourists who visit this place can enjoy walking around Ban Tha Ma Oh to see the beauty of Old Town Lampang.

15.30 Hrs.  Visit Ban Sao Nak (บ้านเสานัก).
The house was built with Burmese-Lanna architecture consisting of a large building with 116 teak wood pillars. The terraces were influenced by Burmese architecture, while the roof and structures were influenced by the Lanna style. The old style of the house reflects the way of life, tastes, and traditions of the Lampang residents. Therefore, it can be said that Ban Sao Nak is a valuable architectural work.
